

Hawaii Association of School Librarians
2010 Fall Conference
Presents...

Guest Speaker Lauren Apiki Ellsworth
Teaching with Technology to Foster Creativity and Collaboration
What happens to learning when students are empowered through multimedia project development?

Luncheon to follow...
“Our Golden Celebration: HASL’s First 50 Years”

Lauren Ellsworth, executive director of an educational technology academy, will explain the process of K-12 students collaborating to learn about community issues, seek and establish educational partnerships, then share their learning in an interactive presentation.

When: Saturday, Nov. 6, 2010
Where: Hale Ikena, Fort Shafter

Cost:

$20 – Early Registration due by 10/1
$25 – Regular Registration due by 10/15
$21 – Luncheon Registration due by 10/15

Conference:	8:30-9:00	Registration
	9:00-9:40	Membership meeting
	9:45-10:30	Guest Speaker
	10:30-10:45	Q&A with speaker
	10:45-11:45	Exhibitors
Luncheon:	11:45-12:00	Registration for Luncheon Only participants
	12:00-2:00	Luncheon

Registration form will be mailed to members in August.